

Keira Holloway (23, biracial, female)

Keira is Violet's high-strung roommate and a staunch believer in plans. Keira's 16-year plan includes marrying her boyfriend Braxten, having three children, and running a successful private practice as a children's grief counselor by the time she's 34. She has a habit of pathologizing all of her friends' problems while systematically ignoring her own. Sure, she can be a tad bit overbearing, but it's only because she cares deeply about her friends and genuinely wants to see them happy.

AUDITION SIDE: Keira – On a phone call with Violet, her roommate.

Hi! Are you busy tonight? Can you be? Braxten's coming over after his alleged barbecue and everything has to go perfectly. I'm trying to get him to come clean about possible substance abuse. If you're going to be at the apartment, just behave, okay? Don't say anything strange. Or rude. And please, please, please don't bring home any strays. Okay, love you! Bye!
