

NEVIN: Male Caucasian, 30's.

Assigned to Joelle after being promoted from an administrative job as part of an internal promotion and development initiative championed by Joelle.

Is very loyal to Joelle, has great numeracy and research skills but hasn't much street sense or people skills. Decided to go through the files in the conference room of Tony's law firm dressed in his usual streetwear which made him stand out like a sore thumb and got him arrested for burglary. Joelle told him to dress appropriately which he interpreted as wearing his newest sneakers.

AUDITION SIDE:

NEVIN:

I should probably wait until Rita gets here. I don't know all of the facts but if what I overheard is right, this is going to be a cluster. The police think they may have found one of our cases. Burned alive. They're trying to make a positive ID but the need to use her dental records. It makes me stick to my stomach just thinking about it. I think I'm going to vomit. I don't think I'm cut out for this part of the job.
